

Expt '17.

Aim: To demonstrate storage as a service to create & configure new image on any public cloud provider.

Procedure:

- Go to Azure.
- In Azure portal click on create resources account and click create.
- Select the appropriate perform & replication option and specify.
- Once the storage account is created navigate to it.
- Configure container with unique name for container. set the access level & click create.
- upload any file & after uploading the file you can get its public URL.

Result:

oubpeb

TUES W

Note
Pad